

Discover Singing

2020 Repertoire Challenge

- A pre-baroque song
- A creative setting of a folk song
- Something atonal
- A song with an unconventional score (e.g. graphic)
- A song with at least two time signatures
- A modal song
- A song that wasn't written for your voice
- A song by a female composer
- A song by a South American composer
- A song with a performance direction you had to look up in a book
- A song from outside your preferred genre(s)
- A setting of a poem by a famous author
- A song with the tempo marking allegro
- A strophic song with at least five verses
- A song with "love" in the title
- A song written in the 21st century
- A song that includes whistling or humming
- A song with a one word title
- A song inspired by a novel
- A song that requires improvisation or decoration
- A song with a title that starts with A
- A song about money
- A lullaby
- A song you'd sing at a wedding
- An overdone audition song
- A song in a language you aren't familiar with
- A song by a composer you've never sung before
- A song from a song cycle or show you've already learnt one song from
- A song from your "wish list"
- Polish up an existing favourite song

